

A-Level Drama and Theatre

Pre-Course Induction Task 2019

Exam Board: OCR

In preparation for your initial practitioner studies, you are instructed to complete the task below and complete the following essay style question

“Konstantin Stanislavski has had a profound influence on acting styles, playwrights and directors through his plays and his essays which continues today. How far do you agree with this statement?”

Your essay should contain factual information regarding the practitioner and the context in which he was working, and you should aim to demonstrate your academic ability and knowledge and understanding of theatre history, performance style and Stanislavski’s working methodologies and practices.

All students are expected to clearly reference their work and cite all sources used.
